

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION SERVICE 4-H Volunteer Application Packet

Adults who assume volunteer roles within Mississippi State University Extension Service (MSU-ES) have the opportunity for a rewarding experience. It is understood that a volunteer's role is easier to manage when expectations and responsibilities have been outlined and communicated prior to the job assignment. The success of the 4-H youth development program is attributed to its volunteers. A Registered 4-H volunteer is anyone who contributes time, energies, or talents to the 4-H program and is not paid by MSU-ES.

The process to become a Mississippi State University Extension Service 4-H Registered volunteer will consist of three-steps, which includes:

1. Fill out a Volunteer Application Packet.
2. Must complete a MSU-ES approved background check or provide documentation that an approved background check has been completed.
3. Mandatory Training

The Volunteer Application packet (VAP) contains the following documents:

- a. Volunteer Application
- b. Reference Forms (2)
- c. Volunteer Expectations
- d. Volunteer Position Acceptance Form
- e. A copy of Background Check Form

The volunteer's signature is required on the Application, the Position Acceptance Form and the Volunteer Expectation Form.

A Registered 4-H Volunteer is a volunteer who has completed the full Volunteer Application screening process including: application, screening, and training and has been approved by the MSU-ES County Extension Agent and appointed by the appropriate MSU-ES Associate Director for Youth Development. To the extent authorized and allowed by law, this application form and its contents will be kept confidential and accessible only to appropriate MSU personnel and administrators.

Mississippi State University Extension Services will:

- Educate volunteers to the 4-H program's mission, purpose, goals as they relate to positive youth development.
- Provide direction for Mississippi Extension State University Extension Service 4-H programs.
- Provide instructional materials and resources to be used for educational programming.
- Provide educational programs and materials to develop a volunteer understanding of youth development.

- Provide job descriptions for county volunteer leadership roles.
- Provide support and encouragement to all volunteers.
- Give recognition for time and energy devoted to 4-H Youth Development.
- Inform volunteers of events and activities via Extension newsletters, website and correspondence.
- Maintain working relationships with volunteers and parents involved in the 4-H program.
- Provide a conducive and positive learning environment for 4-H youth, volunteers, parents and other supporters.

Mississippi State University Extension Service Expectations For 4-H Volunteers

Trust is placed in the Mississippi State University Extension Service to provide quality leadership and care for individuals participating in Extension programs. The opportunity to work with youth is a privileged position of trust that should be held only by those who are willing to demonstrate behaviors that fulfill this trust. These expectations for volunteers guide their involvement in Mississippi State University Extension Service activities and programs.

The purpose of these expectations for volunteers is to ensure the safety and well-being of all participants (i.e., youth, their parents and families, paid and volunteer staff). Mississippi State University Extension Service volunteers are expected to function within the guidelines of Mississippi State University Extension Service 4-H.

The following statements relate to the role of a volunteer with Mississippi State University Extension Service and represent a contractual agreement between a volunteer and Mississippi State University Extension Service.

- As a 4-H volunteer who will have contact with youth audiences, I agree to undergo a mandatory background check.
- I will represent Mississippi State University Extension Service to youth and adults by conducting myself with courteous manners and language, exhibiting good sportsmanship, serving as a positive role model, and demonstrating appropriate conflict resolution skills.
- I will abide by all applicable laws and MSUES rules, policies, and guidelines. This includes, but is not limited to, child protection policies, fiscal management procedures and substance abuse policies.
- I will participate in volunteer training at the county level annually. I will work to improve my volunteer skills by participating in training conferences such as north or south Mississippi Forum, Annual 4-H Volunteer Conference and other opportunities.
- I will not consume or allow 4-H youth to use alcohol or illegal drugs at any MSUES function.
- I will, when transporting others, operate vehicles and equipment in a safe and reliable manner and only with a valid operator's license. I will comply with all vehicular regulations and laws. All passengers will be secured by properly operating seat belts. I have the minimum vehicle insurance coverage required by the state of Mississippi.
- I will accept the responsibility to promote and support the vision, mission, and values of Mississippi State University Extension Service and its programs.
- I will conduct myself in a manner that is in the best interest of youth, adults, and MSUES and will not use the volunteer position for purposes of personal gain.
- I will treat animals in a humane manner and teach program participants to provide appropriate animal care and management.
- I will use technology (including social media) in an appropriate manner that reflects the best practices in youth development.
- I will not practice, condone, tolerate or allow bullying, hazing, harassment or malicious pranks.
- I will ensure that educational programs of Mississippi State University Extension Service shall serve all people regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, or group orientation.
- I will work with the local Extension staff to plan quality educational programs in my county.
- I understand and accept that Mississippi State University Extension Service has the right to remove me as a 4-H Volunteer with or without cause.

I have read, understand and accept these expectations for volunteers. I understand that suspension or termination of my position will result if I do not meet these expectations.

Roles of the County Extension Agent

Extension agents/program associates have the responsibility for oversight of the 4-H Youth Development Program in their assigned counties. This includes the following responsibilities:

- Coordinate the chartering of 4-H membership clubs and other 4-H affiliates (e.g., 4-H Council, volunteer/parent groups, committees, etc.)
- Provide opportunities for all 4-H youth
- Plan and coordinate the county 4-H program
- Staff the 4-H clubs utilizing volunteers with the assistance of youth leaders
- Provide training, supervision, and resources for volunteers/parents and youth leaders
- Explain and enforce 4-H rules and procedures
- Ensure that a quality 4-H educational program is conducted in the county
- Inform 4-H volunteers and members about opportunities at county, district, regional, state, national, and international levels
- Appoint or dismiss 4-H members, 4-H volunteers, and 4-H parents

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION SERVICE
Role of 4-H Volunteers

4-H is a non-formal educational program delivered by volunteers who are supervised by Extension agents/program associates. There are two major roles adults may assume in 4-H:

- Direct Volunteer — “Unpaid support for the 4-H program through face-to-face contact with youth, by a youth, by a youth or adult, e.g.: project leader, club leader, camp counselor, teacher, activity leader, organizational leader, and teen leader.” (As defined in Extension Service and Land Grant University Cooperating Extension Service, United States Department of Agriculture ES Form 237 (7/93).

- Indirect Volunteer — “Unpaid support for the 4-H program by adult which does not include face-to-face contact with youth, e.g.: boards, committees.” (As defined in Extension Service and Land Grant University Cooperating Extension Service, United States Department of Agriculture ES Form 237 (7/93).
