

COUNTY ELECTED OFFICIALS

County Constable

Summary of Office

Preserve peace and execute criminal laws of the state for the justice court.

Number to Be Elected

Number of constables determined by number of justice court districts.

Term of Office

Nominations for election to the office of circuit clerk are made via primary elections conducted by the political parties or via a petition of qualified electors. The general election for the office of circuit clerk is held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of general election years. County constables are elected at-large for a 4-year term. The term of office of a constable starts on the first Monday of January after the election.

Criteria to Run

Must reside in the district from which he/she is chosen and be a qualified elector.

Duties of Office

A constable's general duties are "to keep and preserve the peace within the county, by faithfully aiding and assisting in executing the criminal laws of the state." In addition, the constable is required to attend the justice court of his/her district and execute all judgments in any criminal case before the court.

Publication 3220 (POD-06-21)

By Jason Camp, Extension Instructor, Center for Government and Community Development.

Copyright 2021 by Mississippi State University. All rights reserved. This publication may be copied and distributed without alteration for nonprofit educational purposes provided that credit is given to the Mississippi State University Extension Service.

Produced by Agricultural Communications.

Mississippi State University is an equal opportunity institution. Discrimination in university employment, programs, or activities based on race, color, ethnicity, sex, pregnancy, religion, national origin, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, status as a U.S. veteran, or any other status protected by applicable law is prohibited.

Extension Service of Mississippi State University, cooperating with U.S. Department of Agriculture. Published in furtherance of Acts of Congress, May 8 and June 30, 1914. GARY B. JACKSON, Director